

C omplete the tree

Staple colored construction paper to the bulletin board as a background. Draw a bare tree with a felt marker and/or tempera. During the fall, have children draw leaves and tack them to the tree and ground.

Further suggestions: For a winter scene, children cut out and tack snowflakes on the board. For a spring effect, children construct leaves, grass, flowers, birds, bees, butterflies, etc., and tack them up.