

Turkey Hand Print

Paint the palm and fingers of each child's hand with brown tempera paint. Gently press the palm on white paper to make a print which will be the turkey's body. When the paint is dry, draw turkey's feet, face, and grass under the turkey.

A variation on the project is to trace with brown crayon around each child's hand to form the turkey's body. Color the turkey.

